

SEND Information Report 2026-27: The Piggott School

1) Types of Special Educational Need that are provided for at The Piggott School	The SEND Department provides support for students across the 4 areas of need as laid out in the SEND Code of Practice 2014 • Communication and interaction • Cognition and learning • Social, emotional and mental health difficulties • Sensory and/or physical needs We provide for a wide range of special educational needs, currently including: • Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder (ADHD) • Autistic Spectrum Disorder (ASD) • Sensory needs (including visual and hearing impairment) • Social, emotional and mental health needs (SEMH) • Speech and language difficulties • Specific learning difficulties (including dyslexia) • Medical needs
2) Information about The Piggott's policies for identification and assessment of students with SEND	Students are identified as having SEND and their needs assessed through: • Information passed on from primary or previous schools/preschools • EYFS results, KS1 & KS2 results, CATS testing, baseline testing, and progress data • Feedback from teaching/SEND staff, and observations • Pupil Premium interventions • Referrals from parents • Student referrals • Observations by external professionals
3a) The Piggott's approach to teaching students with SEND	Provision for SEND students includes: • Quality First Teaching with appropriate differentiation in place as the key part of Universal, Targeted and Specialist provision • LSA (TA in Primary) support in classrooms where appropriate • Access to smaller groups • Individualised short-term intervention programs, such as Dyslexia support, reading support, maths coaching, and 5 minute box, precision teaching, etc in the primary • Adapted resources, materials, and interventions • Assistive technology, where appropriate • Touch-typing • 1:1 TA support in Primary school All students are exposed to a broad curriculum, where teaching is tailored to the needs of the student. Our staff are dedicated to giving each student the appropriate amount of support. Part of the school's fundamental belief is to provide quality first teaching and effective provision for all students. Teachers strive to achieve these goals. Our teachers possess experience in instructing learners who have diverse SEND needs, and they can seek additional advice from the Pastoral Support Team and SENDCOs as needed.

3b) How the Piggott School evaluates the effectiveness of provisions made for students with SEND	The SENCo, Pastoral team, curriculum leads and class teachers continually monitor the development of all pupils (through their attainment and progress) which includes children with SEND. Support is also regularly reviewed through the 'assess, plan, do review' process. • School Planning Meetings are held to track the impact of interventions for vulnerable SEND students • Annual reviews are held for students with EHCPs • Progress and evaluation is reported to the SEND Governor • An Annual Report is made to the Governing Body and the SEND Information Report is posted on the website

3f) How The Piggott School enables students with SEND to engage in activities of the school (including physical activities) together with children who do not have SEND	The Piggott School operates with an inclusion ethos, supported by medical needs and Special Educational Needs, and students spend the majority of their lessons in the classroom with peers who do not have SEND. Students with SEND are variously supported (as appropriate to the nature of their SEND) to engage in activities with their peers, through support such as: • Taxis to take wheelchair users to other sites, e.g. the church for Carol Service, or on other school trips. In such cases, a small number of peers

	are invited to join the student with a wheelchair in the taxi, which affords them the same opportunities to socialise as their more able-bodied peers. • Wheelchair accessible coaches are booked for school trips. • Some students may occasionally need to have 1:1 lessons outside of the classroom depending on their needs, e.g. students with physical disabilities have physiotherapy sessions or may have their Food lessons in the (downstairs) accessible kitchen and may be accompanied by another classmate. • Ramps across the site and elevators in all two-story buildings (except Food Department) to enable students with physical disabilities to join their peers in the classroom • Accessible toilets • All departments, the library, and the primary school have adjustable tables for students with wheelchairs • LSAs within the classroom to support students with SEND to access the learning within a classroom setting • LSAs assigned to school (day) trips to support students with SEND off-site • Modified and differentiated learning materials, as appropriate to facilitate learning within a classroom setting • Specialist chairs are in place as needed • LSAs trained by external specialists to deliver physiotherapy exercises as needed • Purpose built physiotherapy room with therapy table and hoist • Accessible toilets around the site
3g) Support that is available for improving the social, emotional, and mental development of students with SEND	Pupils are supported by • Anti bullying and safeguarding policies that are supported by specialist trained staff – Mr Thatcher (Wargrave DSL) • An acceptable internet usage policy
